

BERNARD FUTTER - OPERATIONS

Bernard is the Chief Executive Officer of AssetHouse Limited, an independent investment management and financial advisory business based in Mauritius. Bernard has spent most of his working career within wealth management, asset management, stockbroking, insurance and employee benefits.

In 1985 Bernard joined the South African life assurance industry in the marketing of group benefit schemes. He then moved into the investment management business as a Portfolio Manager for clients invested in JSE-listed securities. Thereafter, Bernard was one of the founders of Incorporated Securities, an investment advisory and asset management business, and held the position of Managing Director. In 1998, this business merged with the Appleton Group and was listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange. Bernard was appointed a Director and Head of Appleton's private wealth management business. Appleton was sold to the PSG Group in 2003, at which point he left to establish AssetHouse. He is also a director of New York and Dublin based Belmont Investments, an alternative investment strategy fund manager.

Bernard holds a Diploma in Business Administration and is registered with the South African Financial Services Board as a fit and proper candidate having successfully completed the regulatory examinations for Key Individuals (categories 1, 11, 11A, 111, and 1V).
