

OLIVIER BERNARD – (INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE)

Olivier Bernard, French national, studied Business and Finance in Neoma (previously known as Reims Management School) in France. He gained experience in the Oilfield Service Industry in various countries of Europe and Africa, with leading companies of this sector.

From 2000 until 2016 he was a key member of the team developing the biggest onshore support base in sub Saharan Africa, based in Luanda (Angola), with a total investment of 1 billion US dollars. During this time, he assumed various positions, negotiating financing with international banks, implementing SAP, and ultimately in the General Management of the company. Olivier's main areas of expertise in his various management roles were in Finance & Contract.

